

JOSHUA KING

WORK EXPERIENCE/

ALICE IN WONDERLAND JANUARY, 2012

The Frog, Artix Theatre

The role of the frog was a tired frog slumped in front of a door telling Alice she could not pass, this role was authoritative so I had to command the audience while also portraying that the frog had been tired for days.

FREE THE SUN BIRD JUNE, 2011

Kings Guard, Artix Theatre

This role involved me being on stage for the duration of the play. The role required me to stand by the King advising him while also portraying myself as regal but menacing.

NEW COLLEGE HAS GOT TALENT NOV, 2011

Myself, Artix Theatre

For this performance I chose to write and perform an original stand-up comedy routine which entailed creating original comedy content but I based it around myself so the audience could relate to me more. This was the first solo performance and I excelled, leaving the stage to an applauding audience.

BLOOD BROTHERS JANUARY, 2011

Sam Johnston, Artix Theatre

Sammy was from a poor family and resented the rich upper class society which led him to a life of thievery and crime which ended in him being incarcerated. To play this role I had to adapt and become a lot darker because he is a very jealous and dangerous person. This role was different but also enjoyable as I learnt to be darker which is different to previous roles.

Determined + Hardworking

ABOUT ME/

I am an Acting enthusiast at heart and love anything related to it, in my spare time I enjoy reading books, watching films, learning about acting and I also practice a form of martial arts. I am keen to learn new things which is why I have a range of skills relating to acting that I am hoping to build upon.
